

AUSTSWIM Towards Competitive Strokes and Coaching (TCSC)

AUSTSWIM Towards Competitive Strokes and Coaching (TCSC)

RTO No: 104975

AUSTSWIM's Towards Competitive Strokes & Coaching (TCSC) course, replaces the previous Teacher of Towards Competitive Strokes (TCS) course. Developed in collaboration with Swimming Australia, the TCSC course provides the essential foundation for understanding competitive strokes, athlete development, and the fundamentals of coaching. This course is the recognised prerequisite for entry into the Swimming Australia Coaching Pathway, beginning with the Development Coach Course.

Course overview

- Prerequisite course to enrol in the Swimming Australia Development Coach course
- One-day face-to-face delivery (6 hours)
- Focus on stroke development and the competitive swimming landscape

USI

- A Unique Student Identifier must be provided on enrolment for verification by AUSTSWIM. For more info visit USI website.

Please note

This course does NOT qualify the Candidate as a Swim Teacher or a Swim Coach.

The course provides six (6) PD hours.

Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites to enrol in this course; however, Candidates must be 17 to attend the Swimming Australia Development Coach course.

Assessment

After attending the one-day course, an assessment quiz must be completed.

100% pass mark is required.

What to bring

There is no in-water component for this course.

Candidates should bring:

- Pen and paper for notetaking
- Drinks and snacks as required

How to enrol

Via AUSTSWIM website or
Call: 1300 885 666

Unit of Competency

The AUSTSWIM Towards Competitive Strokes and coaching course contains NO units of competency.