Emma Pendlebury Recipient of the 2018 AUSTSWIM National Teacher of Swimming and Water Safety Award

Emma Pendlebury tributes her passion and career of being a first-class Teacher of Swimming and Water Safety to her Grandmother.

“It was her idea! “You love swimming and the water, why not turn this passion into purpose and become a swimming teacher”. “So I did and I have never looked back”.

It is Emma’s vibrant and passionate personality that shines through into her classes and that has seen her named the recipient of the 2018 National AUSTSWIM Teacher of Swimming and Water Safety Award.

In 2018 AUSTSWIM had over 240 AUSTSWIM Teacher Award nominations across Australia and New Zealand, with Victoria taking out 4 of the 8 National Awards.

AUSTSWIM CEO Carl Partridge said the national awards were the pinnacle of recognition for swimming and water safety educators. With over 34,000 licenced teachers, AUSTSWIM services the community and enhances a skilled aquatic workforce.

Emma teaches at Club Mandalay, Beveridge in Victoria and is constantly working on new practices to suit all of her student’s needs.

Emma was nominated for her outstanding attitude and high skill level that has inspired generations of young students to attend her classes; and for her advocacy for learning and continuing to improve her knowledge, skill and understanding of all things aquatics.

A not-for-profit body, AUSTSWIM is Australia’s pre-eminent provider of swimming and water safety teacher training. Its licensed teachers are accredited to the ISO17024 standard and provide an essential link in drowning prevention and safer aquatic participation.
